

FOR COMMISSIONER

EDMUND T. HULANISKI.

I favor pursuing the same policy in the city's business as corporations and firms follow—honesty, economy and public policy, carefulness in making contracts, living up to them when made and seeing that the city gets what it bargains for.

While I doubt the wisdom of a city going into partnership with a corporation to build a public work, having done so all that remains is to carry out the building of the dam and safeguarding the interests of the city. I am opposed to the gratuitous granting of franchises by the city. The best possible terms should be obtained for the city on every franchise, and I favor submitting the granting of a franchise of any importance to vote of the people.

I do not favor the imposition of blue law restrictions on tourists. Unless tourists are permitted to live as they are accustomed to live they will not visit with us; and we want them to do so and to spend their money with us.

I would put the road between the bridge and Five Points in proper condition. There are probably other places that need like attention, but that road is notably in need of repairs.

I have no personal interest in the liquor question. My views, based upon long observation, favor high license, regulation and limiting the number of saloons. There is no excuse for the existence of a dive. If such comes into existence, suppress it.

As to closing hour at night, the state law says 12 o'clock. Beyond that the commission cannot lawfully go. Nine o'clock appears early to some, especially in summer. There is always a happy medium. Perhaps 10 o'clock might be a good compromise. I am not radical on the point and personally do not care except as it affects prosperity, and I favor a policy that will not only bring people here, but will induce them to stay when they come, and further to bring about a state of affairs that will permit all classes to have a fair chance to forge ahead in business and labor.

Vice should be controlled in such a manner as to reduce it to a minimum.

REFORESTING IN THE
FORESTS

Supervisor Lafferty of Weiser, Idaho, has just reported to the Ogden office of the forest service that Deputy Supervisor Campbell and Forest Examiner Oman have started the re-seeding of eighty acres of burned over area on his forest with yellow pine seed. This ground is situated in the Weiser national forest and was burned over in 1910.

One hundred and ninety-five acres were planted to yellow pine in the fall of 1911. The 1911 planting was done with corn planters without any preparation of the soil. It has been fairly successful as shown by an examination made on August 15, 1913. This examination showed an average of 1578 seedlings per acre. This year the seed will be planted in spots about six feet apart where the soil has been loosened. It has an average of 11,966 seed per pound and a germination test of 40.5 per cent. The planting will be done at the rate of one and one-half pounds per acre. This will allow over 7000 fertile seed to the acre.

The cost of planting varies with the character of the ground, its accessibility, and the condition of the weather at the time planting is done. In 1911 planting on this area costs $4.46 per acre.

CATTLE COMPANY IS TO BE FORCED TO GIVE UP LAND

R. F. Feagans of the forest service law department and assistant in the office of solicitor, and Timothy Hoyt of the land department, have returned from Vancouver where they took depositions in the alleged illegal mineral claim entries in the Kaibab forest of southern Utah and northern Arizona by the Grand Canyon Cattle company.

Rather than place the witnesses in the case at the disadvantage of traveling to the United States district court at Phoenix, Ariz., the foresters are taking depositions at homes. The witnesses are far separated and at long distances from the court where the five cases will be heard, except those witnesses in the immediate vicinity of Phoenix.

Witnesses outside of Canada, whose depositions were taken by the foresters on their recent trip, reside in Idaho, Nevada, California and southern Utah and their depositions will be taken in the course of the next few weeks.

Mr. Feagans says that there are five cases in which the big cattle company is charged with securing title to certain lands in the national forest as placer claims, which, in fact, are either forest or agricultural lands and have no evidence of mineral.

Government officials familiar with the filings says that each of the claims covers certain watering places in that section of country and that there is little value to the holdings except in the control of the water, giving the company a decided advantage over other cattle raisers, as water is not plentiful. The forest service department has asked that the title deeds be cancelled on the grounds that the lands do not contain mineral deposits. The cases are of national importance and will be watched with considerable interest.

Mr. Feagan says that claims have been patented as mineral lands and title issued by the government, but in the hearing the forest service men will seek to have the lands restored to the public domain.

FIVE BURGLARIES IN THE CITY DURING THE NIGHT

Five small burglaries were recorded by the police this morning. Four of the reports came from merchants at Five Points while the fifth was from the Alvord second hand store. Sergeant Layne, who investigated the burglaries at Five Points, is convinced these boys or inexperienced burglars did the work.

The Cardon grocery reported that the back door of their store had been "jimmied" and that about $4 in pennies had been taken and also some crackers and candy.

The office of the Pioneer Coal and Lumber company on Second street was entered by way of a side window. The desk was broken open and papers scattered about, but no valuable were taken, although the intruders could have had $6 in pennies and postage stamps by opening one of the desk drawers that was overlooked.

An attempt was made to enter the Craig canning factory, but the night watchman prevented a robbery. The man heard the knob of the front office door being manipulated and when he investigated he found the door-knob unscrewed.

The Sherwood Millinery store was entered, but the thieves were unable to secure much of value.

When Sergeant Layne inquired among the residents of Five Points he was told by a man who had taken his horse to the blacksmith shop early in the morning that a figure carrying a sack was seen coming from behind the Shaw store, that went down Second street toward the railroad tracks. It is thought that the sack bearer might have been the thief.

I. T. Alvord reported that several articles had been taken from one of his show windows. The proprietor said that the theft was made from the inside of his shop.

FOR MUNICIPAL JUDGE

JUDGE W. H. REEDER.

According to prevalent custom, I am pleased to announce to the public that I am a candidate for re-election to the office of municipal judge of this city.

The duties of this office are not those of making the laws nor defining the policies for the operation of city affairs. The duties are rather those of applying the laws, both civil and criminal, which exist and will be made from time to time by those having legislative authority.

If elected, I shall endeavor to the utmost of my ability to administer these laws with impartiality and good judgment and without unnecessary delay.

Respectfully,
W. H. REEDER, JR.

It was stated today that the letter was not sent to Mrs. Joyce through the mails, but was placed in the Virginia hotel mail receiving box. Neither did the girl receive the decoy letter at the postoffice because she was arrested before the letter was handed out by the window clerk. The girl is now with her mother in Corinne and the indications are that the federal authorities will do nothing more in the matter, believing that the girl has been sufficiently punished.

SAM BROWN CAUGHT IN A HOUSE BY A PATROLMAN

Released from jail at 10 o'clock this morning, when he was given a suspended sentence after pleading guilty to the charge of drunkenness, Sam Brown was again behind the bars at 12:30 o'clock, having been arrested by Patrolman Jerry Kollmer on the complaint of Charles Yeaman, that Brown had broken into his house at 3055 Pacific avenue.

When the call came to the desk sergeant, that a house was being burglarized, he notified Chaffin Will Richardson and that officer made such fast time with the patrolman that Brown was arrested 10 minutes after the call had been received.

When the patrol wagon arrived on the scene, Yeaman pointed out Brown and said that he was an intruder in the two-roomed house that Yeaman and a friend are using as bachelor apartments while they work on the section. Brown, a little the worse for liquor, made no fuss, but he claimed a right to be in the place on the grounds that he used to rent the place and was now looking for a suit of underwear that he had lost last night.

Yeaman showed the policeman where Brown had been torn off a window for entrance to the house. He also stated that $45 worth of goods, consisting of provisions, clothing, razors and a ring had been taken. Yeaman is inclined to believe that Brown is the guilty person.
